

Send our love, her eternal gain. * * *

Chester, Hugh Easdale, Thion, and McKelvey, Sparta.

OBITUARY.—Mr. Silas P. Tuthill died near Rockwood, Tuesday at 12 o'clock, Feb. 15th, 1881, aged 69 years. After coming from the grave of his helpmeet he was taken sick that same evening, and after an illness of two weeks, was borne to "the city of the dead," to be laid beside her who had so shortly preceded him. He had been a zealous worker in whatever church he united with, having first joined the Methodist, and afterward the Presbyterian Church, the latter of which he was an Elder. At the time of his death he was a member of the Methodist Church. The Lord hath called his loved ones home, No more the paths of toil and pain to roam. Dear Father prepare us for that day, When we, too, shall be called away. T.

COMMUNICATED,—EDS. TRIBUNE: We the